

ASSESS THE CLIMATE IN YOUR CITY

MARE CLIMATE CAFÉ

MAY 25th – 27th 2022 - FACE-TO-FACE

INNOVATIVE MEASUREMENT TOOL TOWARDS URBAN ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS ACTIVITY

Join the MARE Climate Café!!

- Participate in activities focused on the assessment of the urban environment.
- Collect data and do measurements in the city of Coimbra.
- Work with other EU students and share experiences.

The Marine and Environmental Sciences Centre and the University of Coimbra invites bachelor and master students from the University of Coimbra with a passion for liveable cities to participate in this event.

Do you care about the environment and liveability of your city? Participate in MARE Climate Café!

Join us:: register until April 22, 2022.

For more information on Climate Cafés visit e.g. the website
<https://climatecafe.nl/>

MARE Climate Café Coimbra, May 2022

Work with European students in mixed teams

Learn from European universities

Do environmental measurements in your own city

THIS EVENT IS ORGANISED BY MARE AND THE UNIVERSITY OF COIMBRA.

Planned activities will also involve students and lecturers from the ERASMUS+ IMPETUS project partners:

Gdansk University of Technology
Rotterdam University of Applied
Sciences

Hanze University of Applied
Sciences

Graubünden University of Applied
Sciences

University of Klagenfurt
University of Coimbra

For more information and the application form, students of the University of Coimbra should contact the coordinator:
Prof. Isabel Pedroso de Lima (iplima@uc.pt).